2. CHARCHA – Speaking & Group Discussion

Event Description:

The event "CHARCHA" consists of three interactive segments designed to test spontaneity, reasoning, communication skills, and group discussion abilities:

1. The S Game
2. Three Reasons Why
3. Charcha (Group Discussion)

Each round has specific rules and elimination criteria as detailed below

Format & Rules

General Rules (Applicable to All Rounds):

i. Participants must maintain decorum and discipline throughout the event.
ii. Any form of misconduct or inappropriate behaviour may result in disqualification.
iii. Judges' decisions will be final and binding.
iv. The organizing committee reserves the right to modify rules if required for smooth conduct.

1. The S Game:

Format:

i. A total of N participants will be seated together.
ii. Participants will take turns speaking in sequence.
iii. In each round, only one participant will qualify and advance to the next round.
iv. This process continues until a final round is conducted among all round-winners to decide the ultimate winner.

Rules:

i. Words starting with the letter 'S' are strictly prohibited.

ii. All spoken words must be co-related and contextually relevant to the ongoing chain.

iii. Three-letter words are not allowed.

iv. Proper nouns are not permitted.

v. No word should be repeated within the same round.

vi. Use of vulgar, abusive, or inappropriate language will lead to immediate disqualification.

vii. Any hesitation, violation of rules, or incorrect word usage may result in elimination at the respected judges' discretion.

2. Three Reasons Why:

Format:

i. Participants will randomly pick chits containing different topics or situations.

ii. Each participant must present exactly three logical reasons supporting the given topic.

iii. Based on performance, a selected number of participants (depending on the total turnout) will qualify for the next stage.

iv. In the final stage, all selected participants will be given one common topic.

v. Each finalist will again present three reasons, after which the winner will be decided.

Judging Criteria:

i. Relevance and clarity of reasons

ii. Logical flow and reasoning

iii. Confidence and articulation

iv. Originality of thought

[Elimination: Participants will be eliminated based on the overall quality of their reasons and delivery.]

---

3. Charcha (Group Discussion):

This segment will be conducted in two phases.

Phase I: Group Discussion

i. Participants will be divided into multiple groups.
ii. Each group will receive a unique discussion topic, allotted through a chit system.
iii. Groups will discuss the topic within the given time limit.
iv. From each winning group, any two participants will be selected by the judges to advance to Phase II.

Phase II: Individual Discussion

i. All shortlisted participants from Phase I will engage in a combined discussion as individuals.
ii. Each participant will be evaluated independently.
iii. Based on performance, the top three winners will be declared.

Judging Criteria:

i. Content and relevance
ii. Communication skills
iii. Confidence and participation
iv. Listening and response quality

3. PIXEL PERFECT

(VIBE CHECKING THE FRONT END)

Event Description

Pixel Perfect focuses on creating a "mood." Participants are given abstract themes (e.g., "Cyberpunk 2077 Dashboard," "Meditative Forest," "Retro 90s OS") and must build a functional, responsive, and highly animated frontend interface that captures that vibe.

Format and Rules

The event is divided into two distinct stages as detailed below:

Phase 1: The Filter

i. Format: A "CSS Battle" style round.

ii. Duration: 45 minutes.

iii. Task: Give participants a target image (complex shape or UI card). They must replicate it using only HTML/CSS within the time limit.

iv. Goal: Filter out participants who lack basic styling knowledge.

Phase 2: The Vibe Build

i. Format: Open-ended frontend development.

ii. Duration: 2 Hours and 30 Minutes

iii. The Twist: Every 30 minutes, introduce a "Vibe Shift" (a constraint or requirement).

   a. Start: "Theme: Lo-Fi Study Room."

   b. +30 mins: "Constraint: Must include a Dark Mode toggle."

   c. +60 mins: "Bonus: Add a smooth micro-interaction (e.g., button hover animation)."

iv. Tech Stack: We'll allow flexibility. We'll allow both Web (React/Vue/HTML/CSS) and Mobile (Flutter). The output just needs to be visual.

Rules:

i. Eligibility: Open to all college/university students.

ii. Team Size: Solo or Teams of 2 (Pair programming is encouraged).

iii. Technical Guidelines: Allowed Tech are as follows;

- a. Web: HTML, CSS, JavaScript (React, Next.js, Tailwind, etc.).
- b. Mobile: Flutter (since it excels at UI/UX).
- c. Assets: Participants can use open-source assets (Unsplashed for images, Google Fonts), but they must not use pre-built templates (e.g., downloading a Bootstrap theme and editing it is disqualified).
- d. AI Policy: AI generated code is allowed, but the files should be structured.

iv. Judging Criteria:

- a. Aesthetics (40 pts): Colour theory, typography, spacing (whitespace), and overall visual appeal.
- b. Interactivity (30 pts): Hover effects, transitions, smooth scrolling, or engaging animations.
- c. Responsiveness (20 pts): Does it break on mobile screens? (Crucial for web entries).
- d. Code Cleanliness (10 pts): Structured, code variable names and folder structure

v. After the Event:

- a. Submission: Participants must push code to GitHub and submit the repo link + a deployed link (Vercel/Netlify for web, APK/Video demo for Flutter).
- b. Winners: Winners for "Best Design," "Cleanest Code," and "Most Creative."

Vidyut

"Value Is Double when Youth Understands Technology"
Presents

4. LOGIC & LAUGHS

Event Description:

VIDYUT is a fun yet intellectually stimulating technical event designed to test participants' creativity, logical thinking, and understanding of core technology concepts. The event blends humour with technical awareness and physical engagement with digital logic, encouraging participants to think fast, apply fundamentals, and enjoy technology in an interactive and engaging format.

Format and Rules

ROUND 1: Technical Meme-O-Mania

Theme: Creativity meets Code.

Format: Digital/Physical Media Creation.

- Task: Participants will be provided 15 minutes with a set of "Tech-Phrases," "Bug-Scenarios," or "Professor-Captions." They must create a meme (Static Image, GIF, or Video) within the allotted time.

Rules:

1. Originality: Use of pre-existing memes without modification is prohibited.
2. Tools: Participants may use their own smartphones/laptops or provided materials. Plagiarism results in a score of 0. AI-generation is not allowed.
3. Content: Any meme found to be offensive, personal, or disrespectful toward any individual or department will result in immediate disqualification.
4. Submission: Final entries must be submitted via the official portal/QR code provided on the spot.
5. Judging Criteria: Humour (40%), Technical Relevance (30%), and Originality (30%).

➤ ROUND 2: Binary Musical Chairs

Theme: Hardware in Motion.

Format: Physical Logic Simulation.

Unlike traditional musical chairs, this requires pre-calculated movement.

- The Setup: A circle of chairs, each tagged with a '0' (Low/Off) or a '1' (High/On).
  - The Workflow:
  1. The Display: A logic gate (AND, OR, XOR, XNOR, etc.) and two input values (e.g., A=1, B=0) are displayed on the projector.
  2. The Calculation: Participants must mentally solve the gate.
  3. The Scramble: The music starts. Participants already know they must find a chair marked '0/1' to stay safe.
  4. The Stop: When the music stops, anyone sitting on the wrong bit (or without a chair) is eliminated.

  Rules:
  - No Hovering: Participants must keep moving; standing still near a specific chair is a foul.
  - The Scramble: Only one person per chair. In case of a tie, the person whose glutes hit the seat first stays.
  - Logic Errors: If you sit on a chair that does not satisfy the gate logic, you must exit the circle immediately.

Presents

7. Goblet of Fire

Event Description:

Participants take on the role of witches and wizards trapped inside Hogwarts. To escape, they must complete magical challenges created by the professors. Each challenge tests logic, teamwork, and problem-solving skills. Teams must clear all tasks within the given time to win the competition.

Format and Rules

Participants - Teams of 4 players

General Rules -

- All levels are time-bound.
- Use of mobile phones, smart devices, or external help is strictly prohibited.
- Any form of misconduct, cheating, or rule violation will lead to immediate disqualification.
- Teams must report to each level on time. Late arrivals may be disqualified.

LEVEL 1 (EASY) – THE CIPHER SCROLL Des cription: Teams receive a bowl of chits containing famous Harry Potter or other famous series/movies words written using distorted letters or a simple cipher. The task is to decode the message correctly within the given time limit.

Rules:

- No external reference materials allowed.
- Pen and paper must be provided to the teams.
- Answers must be written clearly on the provided sheet.
- The time limit for each team is 1 min.
- The more chits solved accurately and quickly will qualify for Level 2.

LEVEL 2 (MEDIUM)- THE BLIND WIZARD'S TRIAL

Description: One member from each team is blindfolded. The remaining members must verbally guide the blindfolded player to arrange given symbols correctly or solve a puzzle on the board in the given time limit.

Rules:

- Physical guidance is strictly prohibited.
- Only verbal instructions are allowed.
- The one member gets a marker to draw the symbol or solve the puzzle on the board.
- Blindfolded participants must not remove the blindfold during the task.
- The time limit is 2 mins. The task must be completed within the allotted time.
- The final selected team will move into last and 3rd stage of the event.

LEVEL 3 (HARD) - THE TREASURE HUNT

Description:

The Treasure Hunt is a team-based adventure game that tests participants' problem-solving skills, speed, observation, and teamwork. Teams will follow a series of riddles that guide them across different locations within the college area, ultimately leading them to the final treasure.

Rules:

- Each team will receive one envelope at the start of the treasure hunt.
- Use of mobile phones, internet, or external help is strictly prohibited.
- Teams must follow the sequence of riddles and must not skip any station.
- Clues must not be damaged, hidden, or removed.
- Interfering with other teams' progress is strictly prohibited.

Game Structure:

At start of the Game, each team receives an envelope containing the first riddle. Solving the riddle correctly leads the team to the first location/station.

Riddle Sequence

- First Riddle: Leads to the first location. At this location, teams receive or find the second riddle.
- Second Riddle: Guides teams to the second location. Solving it reveals the third riddle.
- Third Riddle: Leads all teams to a common area within the college area. In this area, a map and a key are hidden.

Final Stage

Teams must search the common area to find the map and key. The first team to successfully find both proceeds to the final location. They use the key to open the treasure box hidden there.

The event concludes when the first team successfully finds the key to the treasure box and unlocks it.
